PROFILE

In true education anything that comes to our hand is as good as a book: the prank of a teen-ager, the mistake of a groping student, the out-growth of a heated discussion — they are all part of the curriculum.

EDUCATION IS SOMETHING YOU CAN NEVER GET ENOUGH OF.

Education is a lost freshman.
Education is a blank mind while taking a test.
Education is your first high school dance.
Education is a walk through the halls.
Education is losing a football game.
Education is the topic avoided on weekends.
Education is planning a Prom.
Education is sitting in Mr. Knepp's office -- waiting.
Education is making the honor roll.
Education is learning something when you really didn't think you could.
Education is doing three hours of homework in one hour.
Education is a crowded, noisy, yellow bus.
Education is putting something where nothing was.
Education is Shakespeare's plays.
Education is the grease from machine shop.
Education is a blood test in biology.
Education is graphing a two page Green Rave article.
Education is cheering at a pep rally.
Education is trying out for Choraliers.
Education is a quadratic equation.

EDUCATION IS THE FOUNDATION OF FUTURE SUCCESS.

Education is a college acceptance.
Education is an interview for a job.
Education is voting in your first Presidential election.
Education is donning army green.
Education is traveling.
Education is raising your own child.

THE BEST DAYS

In the fall of nineteen-sixty,
In the shade of tall trees,
The class of '64 assembled to see
Our school surrounded with fallen leaves.

In the hall ways we took everything in --
Upperclassmen, teachers and much more.
We looked for elevators in all the din,
And we looked for rooms on the fourth floor.

After the first few weeks of confusion,
We found new friends and romances.
Gone was the old delusion,
That we should keep with the same school crowd at dances.

Enthusiasm in our class got under way
When bright election posters lined the hall.
"Who won?," someone asked at the end of voting day.
"The whole party -- Jon, Tom, Gin, and Judi!" we heard a student call.

Thrilled at the sight of players dressed in green and white,
At football games we yelled and tossed our shakers.
We groaned -- our player went down in the fight.
We screamed -- our player was a goal-maker.

Throughout the fall we worked hard.
We tried with all our heart and soul.
Many of us went home with a good report card,
And there were thirty-eight freshmen on the honor roll.

During the year came the novelty of MERP Week;
Sandy Sheridan collected thirty-two rings,
And Mary Shaheen dressed in hot pink (sleek)
Took home a Charleston contest trophy among other things.

The school year seemed to whiz by.
Soon we said good-bye to many familiar faces;
Summer vacation gave us leave of Dover High,
And we returned with new clothes and sunburn cases.

Our sophomore year started with the school torn apart;
DHS was getting some much needed repair.
In spite of the mess, we were glad to see school start,
And began planning our year with care.

There were several new additions --
A language lab, curtains on the stage, and fire doors.
The basement had modern business sections,
And all the classes had tiled floors.

Class elections were on everyone's mind;
Our leader was newcomer Skip Small.
With Bob, Donna, and Jon next in line,
Our class would surely stand tall.

In football and basketball our president excelled,
For he played on the Varsity teams without fear.
When JV cheering try-outs were held,
Ginny and Judi were the sophs chosen to cheer.

Our football team made it to fame
With some of our sophomore boys on the team.
We ended the season without losing a game,
And DHS sure gave a proud gleam.

Our deserving basketball squad was sent,
Along with seven other teams,
To Durham for the Class L Tournament,
And made the semifinals midst yells and screams.

Ten stalwart men on the track team ran
To bring acclaim to our sophomore class:
Two Skips, three Bobs, Bill, Doug, Jon, Pete, and Ray.
Such a group as this would be hard to surpass.

The summer went fast, and then back to the grind
With math and history and English III.
But since we were juniors, we really didn't mind
As anyone looking at our proud faces could see.

After greeting our new principal, Mr. Knepp,
It was quickly our election time.
President Skip and Vice-President Bob were full of pep.
Donna took notes and Linda counted each dime.

In November came our long-awaited rings
Along with our football great.
Skip made All County, All State, and such things,
And on Turkey Day we beat the Pointers 14-8!

Our sole junior cheerleader was Judi,
But our majorettes numbered six;
Polly, Lorri, Marilyn, and capt. Patty
Aided by Roberta and Gerry did their tricks.

When winter arrived, cheers filled the halls,
Luise Friese proudly the Perkins' Prize won
And Dover High made the tournament in basketball,
While J. A. honors were achieved by Bill Cason.

Our leadership stayed alive;
To "Older Girls" went Judi, Charma, and Carolyn.
Then we ALMOST won the clothing drive
By piling our goodies in the bin.

We were beseiged by honors galore
When Carolyn was named President of Tri-Hi-Y.
National Honor gained twelve more,
And Bob became President of the Key Club of Dover High.

Mary Jane Heath took first prize with her sewing.
Donna and Bob were chosen editors of the "Rave."
F.F.A. got prizes for livestock and mowing,
And their good reputation did save.

More prizes and awards we took;
Donna got a medal for her essay;
Skip was honored with the Harvard Book,
We were certainly proud that day.

Our Junior Prom arrived all too soon,
With "The Days of Wine and Roses" as the theme.
Beneath the light of the full moon
The whole night seemed like a dream.

Two Johns, two Petes, Bruce, Dusty, and Bob
With Harry, Doug, and Ray
Went to Boys' State in a mob
To legislate each day.

Not wanting to be outdone
Girls' State had Linda Lord
Along with Sue Colbath and Carol Olson,
Who were quickly approved by the board.

Although for some the summer was all fun
With a swim, a picnic, a hike,
Four had to work getting homework done --
St. Paul's Judi, Luise, Joyce, and Mike!

We came back from Europe, the Big Dipper, and Hampton,
Educated, cultured, sunburned, and tired.
We start another year -- our last one
To add to the knowledge we've already acquired.

Jonathan, Wayne, Charma, and Diana
Were the officers we elected.
On the football field in the same manner
Bob, Harry, and Skip were selected.

The staff of the yearbook -- Jo, Donna, Sue, Luise --
Aided by its committees, teachers, and advisor,
Began making plans for a "Profile" to please
With a picture and a word for each senior class member.

During the football season, we gave prayers and a blessing
To the men of the THRESHER and President Kennedy.
We lost to St. Thomas on Thanksgiving,
In spite of the efforts of our fan, Eddie.

Luise, Joyce, and Mike each achieved national fame
With a letter from National Merit for a mind that's keen.
We also received international acclaim --
Our definitions were accepted by SEVENTEEN.

Harvest Queen Linda reigned over us
With Diana, Linda, Judi, and Tina at her command.
Joanne, Gerry, and Ginny went to All State Chorus;
And Patty, Joyce, and Martha went to New England Band.

Chosen basketball captain and Lil' Abner
Was our chemistry whiz, Don Viel.
For his Daisy Mae he chose Minna.
Down the aisle she pushed him on four wheels.

To All State and All County Skip was named;
He also received the Sportsmanship Award.
Judi who lead the cheerleaders at games
Was the recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award.

During Carnival Week, the Faculty whipped the J.V. Team.
At the Country Club toboggans rammed into trees.
Judi was voted our Carnival Queen,
She and her court glowed with a happy sheen.

To Carol Wilson went the Homemaker Award;
To Atlantic City Barry Weeks was sent.
Each received rich reward
For his great achievement.

The girls attended the Senior Tea,
Sponsored by the Home Economics class.
We chatted with advisors and faculty,
And the dinner at Flagstone's was a real blast.

Plans for the class trip were made with excitement.
We visited New York and Washington D.C.
We viewed the World's Fair and the Washington Monument.
We came back happy and a wee bit sleepy.

With "Moon River" as our Prom theme,
We danced on a make-believe ship.
The girls in their gowns made the setting gleam,
And we pretended we were sailing on a moonlight trip.

We were amazed at the pace of events,
As we prepared to leave Dover High.
How much Graduation Day meant
And how reluctant was our last good-bye.

After we leave dear D.H.S.
We'll always remember our teachers and friends,
The rallies, games, assemblies and classes.
And we're ready for what the future sends.

When the books close and the last bell rings,
And carefree days are lost to mundane
things —
When nostalgia strikes and your memory
wanes —
And you remember the faces but not the names —
Pick up your yearbook and leaf it through,
And remember the days so dear to you.
